

IMANI ALERT! SUMMER READING - RISING KINDERGARTENERS

Hello!

We hope everyone is having a great summer so far. As a reminder, in the midst of all the summer fun the students must remember how important it is to read, or be read to, as often as they can. Let's keep those brains sharp! Students should read their required book(s) and at least two additional books – preferably one fiction and one non-fiction. Hopefully, our scholars will read a few more than their required books. Have a wonderful summer – and read, read, read!

Parents, please help your little ones read and discuss the following then complete the activities.

1. Clifford Goes to Kindergarten by Norman Bridwell
2. The Kissing Hand by Audrey Penn
3. What Does It Mean to be Kind by Rana DiOrio

Activities:

1. Write your name, title, author's name
2. Draw pictures to show the beginning, middle and end of the story.
3. What was your favorite part?
4. Who was your favorite character?
5. Rate the book - awesome, okay, not my favorite

Have a great summer and don't forget to read to your favorite stuffed animal.

With kind regards,

S. Garner
